

Say boys, If you want to sell the farmers binders you must get one out of the Trust. Remember the Osborne.

WE SKINNED THEM ALIVE

Not in ourselves was all of this good work done, but by having the best Binder. The Columbia Osborne that only elevates the grain 28 inches. We sure have led our competitors a merry gait. Harvest time is now here and we have our machines here and delivered and our expert to see that you have no cause for complaint while in the harvest field. One of the agents for the Trust machines says his machine is the one that has no competition. We think he must have heard of the old saying where an honest confession is good for the soul, for we'll do we remember when going to school where one boy could not compete with the others and he was always learning his A B C's and it was like his binder—just had one for a class, but the good old Osborne class is already 15 and still a growing, for we do not stand pat and try to make you believe our machine is the best by talking to you, but don't call our sales made till we have shown you in the harvest field. The Trust binder that has no competition will soon be like the man that is to get in his fine work. It will be known as one of the has-beens. The Osborne is now in the harvest field showing the farmers like it did at Paris exposition—that it is the best binder in the world. The Osborne family of implements are all good. The Mower has 4 pawls and 29 teeth and starts to cut as soon as machine starts and is the highest geared mower on the market. The Rake is way head of any other er rake. The Disc is a Joe Dandy. Some of you folks may need a wagon to haul off your grain. Remember the Mandi, for it is well made and prices right. But if you want something that you enjoy yourself in on the Fourth of July and other good days, be sure and get a Henney Buggy that has 115 screws in the bed and 38 inch springs with the best braced body of any buggy in the county and the workmanship on it denotes quality. This Buggy is not the one that has been made for years without a reputation, but has a good reputation right here at home second to none, and if you will ask your neighbor what kind of buggy to buy he will tell you if you want one with durability, easy rider, good looking kind be sure and buy a New Henney.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

HOLDING ANNUAL CONVENTION HERE THIS WEEK.

About One Hundred Young Methodists Gathered from Throughout the District.

THE Epworth League HAS THIS night of week in Jasper this week, the 13th annual convention of the Epworth League District being in session at the Methodist church in this city. The delegates began to arrive yesterday and each morning train has loaded the number of delegates from throughout the district. Besides those coming on the trains many from surrounding towns drove through in barges until the number of visitors is estimated at about 100. The citizens of Jasper have thrown open their homes to the delegates.

E. P. ANDERSON

and are doing their utmost to make it enjoyable for them while they are enroute.

The convention opened last night with praise service conducted by Rev. C. T. Cotton, of Avilla. This was followed by an excellent sermon, on the possibility of a soul by Rev. D. W. Crow, of the Myers avenue church of Joplin. An altar service followed when the large number of delegates gathered around the altar in a very spiritual consecration service.

This morning started early with a sunrise prayer meeting conducted by J. G. Eddick of Hannibal.

At 10 o'clock the convention continued again. Devotional services were conducted by Rev. G. M. Foster of

M. T. DECKER
2nd Vice President.

Liberal. This was followed by a short business session.

After a recess of ten minutes the third from 10 o'clock to 11:30 was taken up with papers on the following subjects:

"Power in Prayer," by Clara Davis, of Lehigh.

"Unconquered is all Powerful," Rev. Brown.

In the absence of Miss Steers and Mr. Liebner who were on for papers, Messrs. Keaser and Mitchell of the Marysville school occupied the time.

The morning session was concluded by a sacramental service conducted by Presiding Elder E. P. Anderson.

The convention comes to an end tomorrow night. Among the principal features of this afternoon's and tomorrow's sessions will be the annual sermon to the Juniors by Rev. E. H. Sapp, of Butler, at 4 o'clock today; Sermon by President G. H. Gosper of Nevada, tonight at 8:15; The General Conference of 1904, by Dr. Jeffrey of Carthage at 11:30 tomorrow morning; and a sermon by Rev. W. F. Jones of Joplin tomorrow night at 8:30.

ANOTHER BRIDGE SITE.

WANT ONE AT THE BROWN FORD.

Petition Out Asking For One At That Place On Union Creek.

A petition is out asking for a bridge across Union creek at the Brown ford three miles east of Jasper. This is just a mile east of the Long ford, the place where a bridge was asked for by a petition presented to the county court last week.

Our impression was that the court had ordered a bridge to be built at the Long ford as was stated in last week's paper, but we are informed that the court did not officially order a bridge but promised the petitioners that a bridge would be built across Union creek in that vicinity this fall.

Of course it is out of the question to build a bridge at each place and it will devolve on the court to view the two sites and select the place which to their mind will accommodate the most people and be the least expensive in the building.

Remembered The Band.

The new firm of Skaggs & Baker treated the band to a box of cigars Saturday night. The Saturday night previous Fred Cather invited the boys into his new parlor and treated them to ice cream, fixed up in his most approved fashion which is strictly right. He also gave each a cigar in the bargain. Fred is a bright and is a good friend of the band.

Sells to His Partner.

Morrison Zinn who has been running the city feed store in partnership with John Waldron has sold his interest in the business to R. E. Waldron who will continue the business in the new Watson building on the corner, where the store has just been moved.

Big Wedding This Afternoon.

The Taylor Ward wedding comes off at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It promises to be a grand affair.

Class, Schwartz returned Thursday from a six week's tour of the northwest. He visited Montana, Wyoming, North and South Dakota and Nebraska.

Misses Fannie, Myrtle and Ethel Peterson left Monday for St. Louis, where they will visit the world's fair.

Robert Faith and Ed Colvert was in this week and got one of those Osborne binders of Webb Bros.

JASPER WELL REPRESENTED.

Several Jasperians in Business At Alta.

Jasper is well represented at Alta which is now enjoying quite a boom. Joe Ehrenman, who is mayor of the town is former Jasperian and among those burned out during the big fire here in the winter of 1899. Mr. Ehrenman moved to Alta a short time after he was burned out and has grown up with the town.

Messrs S. H. Neatch and James Bottorff who recently bought out a store there are rapidly developing Alta into a busy place. They have existing them Chas. Caldwell, another Jasperian.

I. Bowman has bought out an ice, wood and feed business and is considering seriously of moving his family to that place.

Prof C. L. Spald a Jasperian has been in charge of the Alta schools for the past 4 years. Miss Myrtle Peterson has been a teacher in the schools for 2 years and Miss Ethel Peterson will teach there next year making three Jasperians as teachers in the schools at that place next term.

And last but not least, Park McMahon has moved his printing plant to Alta. Park was over 20 years and is very much elated with his future prospects in the journalistic field.

All these are good citizens and Jasper regrets to lose them but their friends wish them happiness and prosperity in their new ventures.

Picnicked at Carytown.

A crowd of Jasper young folks enjoyed a picnic on Dryfork near Carytown last Thursday. They went out on a day wagon about nine o'clock returning about dusk.

Those in the party were Messrs Ethel Robinson, Alta Cather, Maud Spald, Cora Poterell, Ora Boats, Dora Barnes, Elsie Boucher, Gertrude Spald, Anna Rhodes, Myrtle and Grace Gilliam, Messrs. Basil Squires, Herman Barkett, Lawrence Baker and Bert Rhodes.

Golden City Beat

An exciting base ball game was played west of town Sunday between Jasper and Golden City. At the end of the 9th inning it stood 5 to 5. Golden got 2 in the 10th inning and Jasper none giving the game to Golden by a score of 7 to 5.

Mr. John A. Marrs of Joplin, was in the city today interviewing the Republicans of this locality. Mr. Marrs is a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Jasper county. He has been a citizen of Jasper county for 18 years, being a resident of Joplin all that time. He has served as deputy Sheriff at Joplin for 15 months and is versed in the duties of the office to which he aspires.

D. P. Thomson & wife, the well known photographer of Kansas City is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thomson and brother James in this city.

Miss Margaret Spooner, of Harper, Kans., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. F. Pitts. Miss Spooner's father is a nephew of Senator Spooner of Michigan.

John Boerge came to town this week and bought of Webb Bros one of those Osborne binders.

D. C. Glick left this morning for Grand Junction for a square of several weeks.

Frank Thacker was to town this week and got him a New Double Buggy at Webb Bros.
